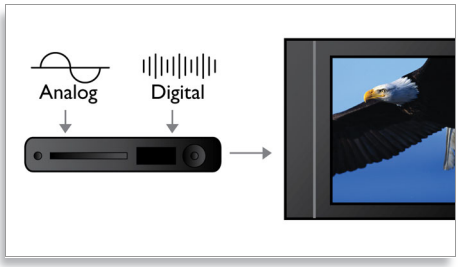
Highlights

DivX Certified
With DivX® support, you are able to enjoy DivX encoded videos and movies from the Internet, including purchased Hollywood films. The DivX media format is an MPEG-4-based video compression technology that enables you to save large files like movies, trailers and music videos on media like CD-R/RW and DVD recordable discs, USB storage and other memory cards for playback on your DivX Certified® Philips device.

Analogue and digital TV tuner



With the Hybrid TV Tuner, you can watch any programme - whether it is a digital or analogue broadcast. While the broadcast industry makes its transition to digital, the Hybrid TV Tuner lets you watch analogue transmissions now, and any up and coming digital ones. You receive seamless entertainment - now and into the future.
